PATRICK MUDGE

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2 • 10:00 A.M.

Embassy - Birch Ballroom

Patrick is CEO and president of Icey-Tek USA, the first rotomold cooler company in the world. Patrick is a Navy veteran and has a bachelors degree from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. Patrick is working to restore the supply chain of domestic farming and outdoor consumer goods to reduce dependability on imports.

REP. REBECCA ALEXANDER

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2 • 11:30 A.M.

Embassy - YF&R Luncheon

Rep. Rebecca Alexander grew up in a dairy family, showing cattle and milking cows. She is a professional storyteller and performing member of the Jonesborough Storytelling Guild. In the legislature, she serves on the House Commerce, Local Government and State Government Committees and serves as the Majority Caucus treasurer.

BEN WHITE

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2 • 2:00 P.M.

Embassy - Birch Ballroom

Ben started his passion for agriculture at an early age on the family farm in northern Mississippi. While attending the University of Tennessee at Martin, he developed a passion for combining agronomy and technology to make decisions that impact the acre. Ben currently resides in West Tennessee with his wife, Ashley, and two children.

KEVIN FERGUSON

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2 • 3:00 P.M.

Embassy - Birch Ballroom

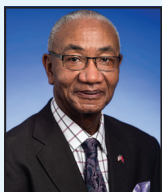

Kevin Ferguson has been with UT Extension since 1986 as a farm management specialist. Within the UT Center of Farm Management's MANAGE Program, he provides farm families and agribusinesses with assistance in developing record-keeping systems, evaluating management and marketing decisions, and developing whole farm/business plans.

REP. JOHNNY SHAW

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3 • 10:00 A.M.

Embassy - Junior Ballroom

Rep. Shaw was born and raised in Fayette and Hardeman counties to hard-working sharecropper parents. In 1999, he was elected as the first African American to represent a rural West Tennessee district since the reconstruction era of the 1860s. He has represented District 80 (Hardeman, Haywood and Madison counties) for the past 23 years.
