RENTERS INSURANCE

Apartment insurance, content insurance, tenants insurance, or renters insurance - they may go by many names, but they are all the same.

A renters insurance policy is coverage designed to protect those living in a rental house or apartment.

This is a crucial step for anyone renting or leasing their home, and many landlords in Tennessee require a policy when signing an agreement.

This guide will lay out the basics of renters insurance, but talking to an agent can help you find the right policy for you.
